Comment:

The final report sets out a result calculated on a weighting of school-based assessments, together with the end of year examinations. Learners are encouraged to prepare for a positive start to 2024 by tackling the areas that require improvement or that need attention.

We commend our learners for their diligence and noteworthy achievements in individual subjects.

All return dates and grade-specific information will be communicated to parents through MyHub.

We wish you and your family a safe holiday and a blessed festive season!
